

JACOB BEAR

Introduction

Do you ever feel like you're on the verge of something extraordinary? Do you know in your bones that you could reach new heights if you could only figure out the next step, get buy-in from the right people, if you could just remove one obstacle that blocks you?

Jacob looks at all problems as adventures, and he's on a mission to share the tools and insights he's discovered through adventures of his own.

As one of the world's first digital nomads, spending nearly 20 years wandering around the United States and the Mediterranean, traveling by bicycle, hitchhiking, and occasionally riding freight trains, Jacob has made a beautiful discovery:

Every human being has a vast wealth of creativity and resourcefulness. With the mindset of an adventurer, you can unlock these resources and discover you already have everything you need to tackle any problem you face.

We are all heroes on a journey, so get ready for an adventure right now as you welcome, from Crescent City, California, Jacob Bear.
